

Forgive Me father

III Niño

Numb despair
Sacred pages tell what will happen
Faith will bring me there
I could never lead you
There is freedom to believe
Before the final prayer, final prayer
Bring me there
There is no escape

May god forgive me
I'm gonna leave this world alone
Please forgive me
I'm gonna turn you into stone
Please believe him
So you can hear me
No one would die on the cross
Not for someone like you

The end is here
My final prayer
They live in fear
Do you even care
Kneel to you for my salvation
Leaving me in my damnation
Final days, final days
Losing faith
Drown my sins away

May god forgive me
I'm gonna leave this world alone
Please forgive me
I'm gonna turn you into stone
Please believe him
So you can hear me
All of the faith that I've lost
Lost to someone like you

Someone like you
I wouldn't die
For someone like you
I wouldn't kill
For someone like you
Why would he die for you

Why would he die
For someone like you
I wouldn't kill for someone like you
I wouldn't die

May god forgive me
I'm gonna leave this world alone
Please forgive me
I'm gonna turn you into stone
Please believe him
So you can hear me
No one would die on the cross
Not for someone like you

Please forgive me!!
Please forgive me...
