

If You Still Hate Me

III Niño

The feelings you are breaking
Are feelings I was faking
My eyes begin to shut
my lifes a bitch
I'm here to cut you up
Your life is one big shut up
You think I'm fake, you are a snake

These are my fears

I fear if you still hate me, you're thinking of me
I'm here and I still don't know, I feel so low now

You think my life's awaking
Like every thought your breaking
My eyes begin to bleed
Word's you're riffing
I'm here to shut you up
You're life is one big fuck up
You think I'm fake, you are a snake

These are my fears

I fear if you still hate me, you're thinking of me
I'm here and I still don't know, I feel so low now
Now

I cannot see how you can be
So fucking hateful of my ways
From all these thoughts I will not stray
The hate I feel today

My life is not something you think you can run
You should have learned
This is the reason we're done
I hate your ways and everything that you say
I wish you dead
