

What Comes Around

III Niño

I hate you.
I hate you.
Shut up!
Shut up!

You think that I'm the one to blame
Everything I lose is just a piece of what there is to gain
You think it's cool and all is fine
Now is the day when you pay, this is my time
I feel for you nothing but pain
I am what you will be, you are dying in me
I love you, I hate you, I miss you.

You're always thinking you're so perfect
Those thoughts drove me away from home
But if you put me through your tests
Then I will fade

I have nothing to say
But I feel like my mouth is open
Everything that is real
Comes around
Comes around
Comes around

Shut up!

Comes around

Shut up!

Comes around

Shut up!

Comes around

Shut! Up!

Your stupid face just makes me sick
I see you changing every day
To fit into the newest clique
I know you, but everything you do
Is just a part of you, you'll never see the truth
I hate the way you make me feel
I hate the way you think you're real
Your one voice it destroys my one choice

You're always thinking you're so perfect
Those thoughts drove me away from home
But if you put me through these tests
Then I will fade

I have nothing to say
But I feel like my mouth is open
Everything that is real

Comes around
Comes around

I have nothing to say
But I feel like my mouth is open
Everything that is real
Comes around
Comes around
Comes around

Tu vida es mia
Your fear is living here in me

Es que no entiendo come en la vida puedes hacer
La paz entre nosotros cuando no vas a decir
Y la gratitude que tu nunca vas a ver
Has now turned to hate

I have nothing to say
But I feel like my mouth is open
Everything that is real
Comes around
Comes around

I have nothing to say
But I feel like my mouth is open
Everything that is real
Comes around
Comes around
Comes around

Shut up!
