

Fall

Ilse DeLange

The floor looks better now, that I've swept the mess you made
I wish it was that easy, to wipe regret away
But you don't seem to mind 'cause you never have to touch
All the stains you leave behind, I keep picking up to

Fall, like the sky let's go of snow
Fall, like sunken ships on ocean floors
Fall, like the words we couldn't hold
We fall

I have boxes stored away underneath our bed
The things I once held dear, now hold dust instead
It's time to take them out and put them all outside
I wish it was that easy to clear my mind

I fall, like the sky let's go of snow
Fall, like sunken ships on ocean floors
Fall, like the words we couldn't hold
We fall

And every time I let you closer
I lose a part I won't get back
I'm feeling just a little older
Every time I fall

Fall, like the sky let's go of snow
Fall, like sunken ships on ocean floors
Fall, like the words we couldn't hold
We fall
