

No Reason No Rhyme

Imany

Now when i've gone you know my name
Now when i've gone you want me back again
I've been at my mind? and sit and done
There's not enough sol you have me back
It's hard to process I understand
It's breakin' your heart but leavin' my untouched
Now there i've gone is love
Now there i've gone
Shadows i've seen

No need to send me flowers
You'r waistin' your time
I've been drive
It's just a little too late
Go on with your life
