

Nothing To Save

Imany

If I had a reason why
To stick around a longer while
Don't you think that I would give it a last try
Won't you stay to put up one last fight

No more words are left unsaid
All of ours are been erased
Don't you feel we've made our bet
Now it's time to lie ahead

Don't you turn around, leave our souls
We already know, we both already know
Don't you turn it around, leave our souls
We already know, we both already know

Comes a time to say goodbye
You don't wanna do it now
You were one but we were only
It was our state of mind

Only fear held us hostage
We would need to rip the page
All our story has been read
Shall we close the book instead

Don't you turn around, leave our souls
We already know, we both already know
Don't you turn it around, leave our souls
We already know, we both already know

Knock knock jokes, nobody's there
And from up close it all seems unfair
And stop top top there's nothing left
Stop stop, nothing to save

Don't you turn around, leave our souls
We already know, we both already know
Don't you turn it around, leave our souls
We already know, we both already know

If I had a reason why
To stick around a longer while
Don't you think that I would give it a last try
Won't you stay to put up one last fight

Only fear held us hostage
We would need to rip the page
All of our story has been read
Shall we close the book instead
