

Silver Lining (Clap Your Hands)

Imany

There is always a silver lining
Blessed are those who know what it is
We think that we need everything
That love is found in our own kind of dreams
There's always time to ask for help
There's always space to find your ways
At times you wait for the storms ahead and Sometimes you hide or you run away

Oh, clap your hands
Oh, clap your hands
Oh, clap your hands
Go ahead, clap your hands
Oh, clap your hands
Oh, clap your hands
Oh, clap your hands
Let go, clap your hands

Because we're afraid of losing
We have lost the meaning of sharing
But with love there is something to win
Today my love be as hard as it seems
There's always room to make mistakes
Not always time to make a mend
There is no shame to ask for help and
There's always hope in a lending hand

Oh, clap your hands
Oh, clap your hands
Oh, clap your hands
Go ahead, clap your hands
Oh, clap your hands
Oh, clap your hands
Oh, clap your hands
Let go, clap your hands

Take a chance
Take a chance
Don't be scare to make a change
Take a chance
Take a chance
Don't be scare to make a change

Oh, clap your hands
Oh, clap your hands
Oh, clap your hands
Go ahead, clap your hands
Oh, clap your hands
Oh, clap your hands
Oh, clap your hands
Let go, clap your hands

Oh, clap your hands
Oh, clap your hands
Oh, clap your hands
Go ahead, clap your hands
Oh, clap your hands

Oh, clap your hands
Oh, clap your hands
Let go, clap your hands

Oh, clap your hands
Oh, clap your hands
Oh, clap your hands
Go ahead, ask for change
Oh, clap your hands
Oh, clap your hands
Oh, clap your hands
Trust me, clap your hands
