

Bring My Cadillac Back

Imelda May

I woke up this mornin' 'bout a quarter to six,
Found myself in a terrible fix.
My baby was gone and the Cadillac too.
Now won't you tell me what I'm gonna do?
Well, I'm a lookin' high and I'm lookin' low
Where in the world did that woman go?
I gotta find my baby and bring it back
'Cause she ran off with my Cadillac!
Said she loved me, said she always would
But she left me for a cat named Robin Hood
He had a dark green suit and a feather in his hat
He wadn't nothin' but a real cool cat
Well I'm a lookin' high and I'm lookin' low
Where in the world did that woman go?
I gotta find my baby and bring her back
'Cause she ran off with my Cadillac!
I really thought that she was true to me
But then she left me all the misery.
I really need her and I want her back
But if I had my choice, I'd take the Cadillac.
Well I'm a lookin' high and I'm lookin' low
Where in the world did that woman go?
I gotta find my baby and bring it back
'Cause she ran off with my Cadillac!
Bring my Cadillac back, baby!
Bring my Cadillac back, yeah!
Bring my Cadillac back, whoa, baby!
Bring my Cadillac back!
Whoa, baby, won't you bring my Cadillac back?
Bring it back!
