

Falling In Love With You Again

Imelda May

Falling in love with you again
Yeah, I'm falling in love with you again
We've been together but it seems like forever
But I'm falling in love with you again

Yeah, I'm falling in love with you again
Seems I'm falling in love with you again
You're my lover, my best friend, but I can't believe what's happening
'Cause I'm falling in love with you again

When you put your hand in mine
Send shivers up and down my spine
Your lips taste soft once more
My heart flips when you simply walk through the front door
'Cause I'm falling in love with you again
Yeah, I'm falling in love with you again
Oh, I loved you from the start, now I love you with all my heart
'Cause I'm falling in love with you again
