

Look Into Your Eyes

Immature

Sensitive but sweet
The kinda girl a boy would wanna meet
Very clever so unique
Baby knocks me off my feet
On and on all I do is dream about you
Hold me gentle hold me tight
I think about you every night

Let me look into your eyes
They say that eyes don't lie
Now I know that you are mine
Cause I'm looking into your eyes

Your eyes gave me the sign
Told me that you want me
Told me that you need me
I want you to see this love can go far
I know that you wanna get with me girl
Hold me, tight

I see you, and I know that you want me
Your eyes say ooo love me
Be my baby today is our day (today's our day, hey)
I see you I know that you want me
Your eyes say oo love me (oo love me)
My baby today is our day (today's our day, hey)

Let me look into your eyes
They say that eyes don't lie
Now I know that you are mine
Cause I'm looking into your eyes
