Old Man Blues

deep wrinkles and shallow breathing sad pale face and shaking hands century old man, chronicle alive clamped lips ... singing anyway

old man's blues

experienced everything, saw such as things war and peace, rationed food illness and suffering, pain and fear joy and letdown, victory and failure

old man guesses he's passed all nothing can surprise this old dog he would rather close the case unable ones leading instead of capable left to wait for his expired date cannot get it cannot understand beg for candle to burn out clamped lips ... calm voice goes out

"I am old man, i'd like to go now, nothing keeps me here, i don't wanna live anymore " Immer
