

Bound To Order

Immolation

Ubiquitous and ever seeing.
Your every move, your every word.

Fear, dominance and control.
Enforcing the code on all.
Protection for the good of the land.
Sentine of the righteous, commands.

Invade you to control you.
No dissent will be allowed.

Obey, follow and comfort.
Condemning those who oppose.
Oppression for the good of the land.
Soldiers of the eminent descent.

Coralled and contained like cattle.
To feed this despotic appetite.
Tagged and numbered, bound and tethered.
Now you'll never be out of our reach.

Fading glory, worn and vicious.
Guilty or not, they will all comply.
Submissive masses sterilized.
Move in lockstep to the beating of our drums.

Projecting comfort while administering terror.
They take the bait while we take the prize.
The order must be upheld.
Understand, with safety comes a heavy price.

Monitor you, rule you.
Your every move, your every word.

Fear, dominance and control.
Enforcing the code on all.
Protection for the good of the land.
Our iron rule now stands.
