Kingdom Of Conspiracy

Immolation

Feeding ourselves to the structure Striving for all that is wrong Crying for all the wrong reasons Living without any souls

A sense of perversion surrounds us Its crafted perception is fading More obvious now is the threat The writing is breaking the wall Feel it all spiraling down

Slowly rising... This ominous power... Beast of deceit... Creeping towards us Ready to show its teeth

Kingdom of conspiracy Knowledge now contained Building up our weakness Subduing us with awe

Watching us play their game Watching our freedoms fade A crescendo of unheeded cries Now cries of the persecuted

Feel its presence expanding Swirling gently around us Looming like a predator Its putrid maw will devour us all No one but ourselves to blame No one but ourselves to shame

Watching us all from above Watching our freedoms sink Branding us for life It's all gone horribly wrong
