

Serving Divinity

Immolation

Eager soliders will rise to your calling.
Holy servants will bow in support.
Father bless us, Mother guide us.
The spirit hearse us and lights us way.
Your faith will serve them well.
Their faith will serve us better.
They'll never question, they'll never doubt.
Mold their hearts, and they'll never go astray.
Give them theater, a model to follow.
Show them the way to serve the divine.
Give them a God that speaks to them.
And give him a leash to rein them in.
Blessed are they in the light.
High on worship and grace.
Eating all the deities up.
Sweetness to cover the pain.

A cult of servitude to lead them all.
On a missin designed to serve one end.
Your gods have misled you int the fires.
With an even higher power pulling their strings.

Paid for in service for one cause.
In silent collusion running the show.
This messenger of peace has wings of black.
Depopulate the world to feed our greed.
Divide the world with false beliefs to wage all wars.
Conquering lives by using faith to rule them all.

A cult of servitude to lead them all.
On a mission designed to serve one end.
Your gods have misled you into the fires.
With an even higher power pulling their strimgs.
