Say goodnight and go. Woah woah. Woah woah

Skipping beats, blushing cheeks I am struggling
Daydreaming, bed scenes in the corner café
And then i'm left in bits recovering tectonic tremblings
You get me every time

Why d'ya have to be so cute?

It's impossible to ignore you

Must you make me laugh so much

It's bad enough we get along so well

Say goodnight and go

Follow you home, you've got your headphones on and you're dancing

Got lucky, beautiful shot you taking everything off watch the c urtains wide open

Then you fall in the same routine flicking through the TV relax $\mbox{\it ed}$ and $\mbox{\it reclining}$

And you think you're alone...

Why d'ya have to be so cute?

It's impossible to ignore you

Must you make me laugh so much

It's bad enough we get along so well

Say goodnight and go

One of these days, you'll miss your train and come stay with me We'll have drinks and talk about things, any excuse to stay awa ke with you You'll sleep here, i'll sleep there, but then the heating may be down again at my convenience we'd be good, we'd be great together.

Go!

Say goodnight and go, why's it always always goodnight and go
Darling not again
Goodnight and go
