

From Here To Colostomy

Impaled

Anal fissures burst with bacterial cess
As the blood spews from your loins
Your crotch leaking pus from the myriad cuts
That have ventilated your groin
Tubular shit slipping from your gut
Fills colostomy bags to the brim
Sputtering farts disintegrate your colon
As I tear you limb from limb

Your ass is swollen shut
Sloughing off your gut

Pyogenic sepsis has invaded your gap
As maggots feed on pus
Your sphincter is punctured with cynical hate
When I hack away at your guts
Pulling the innards from your hemorrhoidal abscess
Tumours and bungs are hashed
Dissected piles are dissolved in diarrhea
And force fed through your gash

Ano-embolisms, chronic diarrhoea
Suffering through repeated enemas
Cleansing your runny stools
The stench of liquid dung is sure
To make my palate drool

Fecund larvae hatch
In my despumating meal
An eruption of organic mucilage
Conspires to seal the deal
Aspirating your colon
With pathological zest
I dimidiate and scour
As I put your ass to the test

Enmangling your ilium with my tools
As excreta collects in sodden pools
Diffluence seeps from your ruined anal duct
Your lewdly gaping rectum is extracted and sucked
