Judgement Day

Impellitteri

Can't you hear the message From deep beyond the grave The cost of war is bloody insane Dying soldier wounded Gunshot to the head Just an innocent man And now he is dead

God will come again some day And the wicked man will hang On judgement day

Don't fear the devil Cause pharoahs go to hell You live your life under a spell Blind men see your evil Rich men love the gore The judgement day evens the score

God will come again some day And the wicked man will hang On judgement day

The dying soldiers And wounded men Loss of innocence Spreads the land White house president And all his men Couldn't stop the end

Don't fear the devil Cause presidents go to hell Sold your soul to Satan And with him you'll dwell Blind men saw your evil And rich men loved the gore Judgement day is coming And presidents You're going straight to hell
