

Rip, Tear, and Burn

Impending Doom

This is the time to fight back
This is the time to fight back

Cast the stones
Upon the innocent
Hypocrites wallow in
Superficial ignorance

Slither like snakes upon the cross
Too many fangs to count
Severed heads will fall
By the hands that they denounce

This is the time to fight back
This is the time to fight back

Never again, never again, never again
Will I entertain the views of godless men
Never again, never again, never again
Will I be force fed a false religion

Does the earth tremble at your name
Do the mountains row at your sight
Do the stars glorify you
Do you give the breath of life

Rip, tear, and burn every last page
What is there to gain
Cursing his holy name

This is the time to fight back
This is the time to fight back

Never again, never again, never again
Will I entertain the views of godless men
Never again, never again, never again
Will I be force fed a false religion

Wage holy war
Wage holy war
Wage holy war
Wage holy war

In death all is final
We will know good and evil
