

Head Up Too High

Imperative Reaction

Always ends up this way
You bleed your alibis
The words you spoke in vain
You hold your head up too high

You always justify
What you have thrown aside
You never even tried
To be more than your pride

Always ends up with you
Your words are always right
You'll never believe it's true
You hold your head up too high