

In Decline

Imperative Reaction

Nothing works the way it should anymore
Yet I keep trying
Nothing feels the way it did before
Am I lying to myself?

I'm in decline
And I only see it one way
So you were right
It doesn't change a thing
I'm in decline
But I thought I could find a way
So you were right
It can't change a thing

Nothing changes, it just gets worse every day
And I keep waiting
Nothing matters as much it should these days
I'm just failing even more
