

Surface

Imperative Reaction

So I gave up on trying to find a way
To an answer that doesn't exist
Barred in by the silence
Constrained to my abyss
And you say "There's always a way out of this maze
You just have to find it"
You say "It's just a matter of time until - "
But I don't believe it

There's no way to surface now
The strain is far too strong to take
From this prison there is no escape

So I gave up on trying to find a way
Through an exit that I sealed shut
Locked into the silence
Poisoned by the rust
And you say "There's always a way out of this maze
You just have to find it"
You say "It's just a matter of time until - "
But I don't believe it

There's no way to surface now
The strain is far too strong to take
From this prison there is no escape

There's no way to surface now
The strain is far too strong to take
From this prison there is no escape

So quiet now
The waves drown out what once was loud
And I don't recall
The sound anymore

There's no way to surface now
The strain is far too strong to take
From this prison there is no escape

There's no way to surface now
The strain is far too strong to take
From this prison there is no escape

There is no escape...
