

The German seems to want to make you a spy
You're dating boys but you have a girlfriend on the side
It's a Covergirl night
You can go light
One look in your eye

Opens the sky
The Moulin Rouge

In the middle of the living room
Breathe out, breathe in and we like the cars
That go boom
We are partners in crime
You're always the bride
And I know you don't mind

When I drop by
We don't have to decide until its light
You love how I drive

I'll give you a ride
The German seems to want to make you a spy
You're dating boys but you have a girlfriend on the side
We are partners in crime
You're always the bride

One look in your eyes
Opens the skies
