

You're One

Imperial Teen

You're one, you're one.
It's with you I want to be
You're one, you're one.
Peace and love and empathy
You're one, you're one.
Tie me off I want to be
You're one, you're one.
Shootin' up the enemy
Shootin' up the enemy, yeah

We played the show and no-one came
We played and played it just the same
If there's no ears then there's no sound
If there's no tree then there's no ground

You're one, you're one.
It's with you I want to be
You're one, you're one.
Peace and love and empathy
You're one, you're one.
Tie me off I want to be
You're one, you're one.
Shootin' up the enemy
Shootin' up the enemy, yeah

That crown of thorns, you wear it well
You bought it cheap, it's time to sell
You say you're sick from altitude
A crown's a crown, what can you do

You take it like a man, boy
You take it like a man, boy
You take it like a man, boy
You take it like a man, boy, you take it like a man,
boy

You're one, you're one.
It's with you I want to be
You're one, you're one.
Peace and love and empathy
You're one, you're one.
Tie me off I want to be
You're one, you're one.
Shootin' up the enemy
Shootin' up the enemy, yeah

I'd pump your sromach if I thought
It'd stop the pain your doctor brought Forever now, forever then
Ignore the flower, feed the stem

You take it like a man, boy
You take it like a man, boy
You take it like a man, boy
You take it like a man, boy, you take it like a man,
boy

You kiss me like a man, boy...

You're one, you're one.
It's with you I want to be
You're one, you're one.
Peace and love and empathy
You're one, you're one.
Tie me off I want to be
You're one, you're one.
Shootin' up the enemy
Shootin' up the enemy, yeah
