

Pirates... The Sequel

In Fear and Faith

Now were back,
With a bang! (With a new mate to add to the gang!)
And were gonna wait,
Till after the day.
We took their ship,
And sunk them fast.
But that war,
Is in the past.
And now...
The time has come.
To show them exactly,
What we've become.
Because we are the ones,
Who stay strong
And choose not to run.

Lets forge our names,
We do this every day.
We make our own way,
And take what you can't give.
All that we've done before,
Is in the past.
This is what we become,
So come now.

Well I'm three sheets to the wind,
And my world is spinning
We take what we need,
And we get what we want.
What's yours is mine,
If you like it or not.
You better hide your daughters,
'Cause were on are way home,
So much to gain,
And nothing to lose,
This life is ours,
But we'll take yours too.
Map of the world,
Take us far from here
Were coming home,
And no one can stop us.
Map of of the world,
Take me home

Pirates life for me!
Pirates life for me!

OH!

Well I'm three sheets to the wind
And my world is spinning
We take what we need,
And we get what we want.

So much to gain,
And nothing to lose.

And I'm sorry that you lost your way.
