

Come Clarity

In Flames

I see, through thirty
Getting older, everyday
My soul, drawing pictures of innocent times
Can you add color inside these lines?

I want you to lead me, take me somewhere
Don't want to live in a dream one more day
I want you to lead me, take me somewhere
Don't want to live in a dream one more day

Sure, it would change my perspective
I am certain I would change today
I am certain it would change our ways
When things fall into place

I want you to lead me, take me somewhere
Don't want to live in a dream one more day
I want you to lead me, take me somewhere
Don't want to live in a dream one more day

I want you to lead me, take me somewhere
Don't want to live in a dream one more day
I want you to lead me, take me somewhere
Don't want to live in a dream one more day

Take me somewhere, don't want to live in a dream one more day (2x)
