Discover Me Like Emptiness

In Flames

I run this world alone,
A song stuck in my mind..
Are you feeling alright?
Don't mind if you ask me once..

Discover me like emptiness..
A defense for a broken heart..
Still offers a smile to the world betrayed...

Always close to the drop..
Disappear with yesterday..
Cure this dream that makes me fall!

Blame me..
Escape me..
It was you who walked away!!
Tie me..
For my sake..
To the dream, that haunts you!

Could never stand the middle,
Want to go far and further..
But something drags me down..
Shapes me..
Forms me.. into dillusion..

Always close to the drop..
Disappear with yesterday..
Cure this dream that makes me fall!

Blame me..
Escape me..
It was you who walked away!!
Tie me..
For my sake..
To the dream, that haunts you!

As I bank other options,
Make this picture distant..
Signing off..
Leave me alone!
I blur you into, the never!

Always close to the drop..
Disappear with yesterday..
Cure this dream that makes me fall!

Blame me..
Escape me..
It was you who walked away!!
Tie me..
For my sake..
To the dream, that haunts you!
