

I like to look at you from a distance
I like when you scream in my face
Afraid to say the right words in right order
So it makes sense to a person with such grace

What if my dreams don't become reality
Is my life just a big mistake
Will I be happy for the times I had
Would I reconsider recalculate

I wanna be heard, but leave no trace
I wanna be seen, but take no space
I wanna be
I wanna be
Leave no trace
I wanna be
I wanna be
Take no space

The older I get, the younger I feel
The younger I feel, the older I seem
The more I feel, my age seems real
Life to pretend, I'm as young as feel

I wanna be heard, but leave no trace
I wanna be seen, won't take no space
I wanna be
I wanna be
Leave no trace
I wanna be
I wanna be
Take no space
Take no space
Take no space
I wanna be heard, but leave no trace
I wanna be seen, won't take no space
