

A Flicker of Recognition

In League

This is my beginning,
The first chapter of what i'd call a real life.
I breathe this new air,
It leaves me so inspired and the truth;
I've never felt this high before.
It might be too soon to tell this but i've had it long enough.
I've gone in every direction that i have been pulled into.
This time i'll make it alive.
I could see this coming so long and i can't go to sleep with the light on.
Way,
Away you'll be away from me.
This could bring me down.
I'm ready to throw it into the river,
And watch it leave.
Life and love built the machine that leads us on.
Sometimes the light will leave us with nowhere to run.
There's no point in living with your eyes closed.
Will you still be smiling when they take you home?
And i never thought we'd make it this far.
I could see this coming so long and i can't go to sleep with the light on.
Way,
Away you'll be away from me.
This could bring me down.
So you've found yourself somehow searching for what is real.
It's something right in front of you,
Something trying to escape me.
The tables turning,
It's in my favor i've found my way now,
I've found my way
