

Can't Live Through Me

In My Eyes

Would you think any different
If the faults were on the surface
Or would you just pretend
That you saw nothing at all
You can't change my mind
These actions can't be stopped by your restrictions
And all the steps I take
Are made on my own
Is the faith you put in others
Less than what you put in yourself?
We hold this true
Words can only take you so far
What's inside?
You can't live through me
These goals and views are mine to see
The ground where we meet
Is what we believe and what we trust
How could you stand so proud?
When you didn't know what you stood for
Now I ask myself
If you could stand on your own
I'd hold you up
But my arms just aren't strong enough
They just aren't strong enough
I wish that you'd hold back.
But your will isn't strong enough
I never thought it'd be this tough
