

Nothing To Hide

In My Eyes

There's nothing left to be done
I won't fight against what can't be won
Sorry if I let you down
But I won't be pushed around
I can accept this blame
Even though the tracks spell out your name
I can only wish
That we can move past this
I can't say that I
Feel responsible for you
What else could I do
The space
That is left
Will be filled by those Whose urgency is shown
Nothing to hide
