

The Big Dig

In My Eyes

When I think back to what I said
It all made sense in my head
But how long did you wait?
How long did you try?
Now I'm left to wonder
How I'm going to get by
Just because I thought you were wrong
Doesn't mean that I am your judge
It seems you think
I can't have my opinion
I guess you'll decide for me
Right from wrong and what I'll believe
Now I'll have to face this on my own
