

Change My Vein

In Strict Confidence

Change my vein
I want another world
Open the valve
Burn my candle
At both ends

Banish me i will supress
Bend my brain
I'll do the crime
Without suspicion

Burn down my soul

You are the stairway
You are the abyss
I am the impression of circling pitfall

Change my vein!

Take my dreams
I won't be angry
It doesn't matter anyway
They are incomplete
I wouldn't understand

Take my tears it won't have reason
My soul is gripped
You can deliver
From my pain
Change my vein
