

Industrial Love

In Strict Confidence

Numbers all around
Computer technology
Thats what it is all about

Count the seconds
Count the time
All this makes no sense
All this counterfeit intelligence

Industrial love
Is turning our hearts into stone
Industrial love
Is keeping the mankind alone
Mankind as machine
Money buys technology
Everything steril and clean
Voltage-power-energy

Count the seconds
Count the time
All this makes no sense
All this counterfeit intelligence

Industrial love
Is turning our hearts into stone
Industrial love
Is keeping the mankind alone
Mankind as machine
