

Paradise Regained

In Strict Confidence

What has happened, is this just a dream?
Fallen angels, I can hear them scream
Lost the war, all rebels had to leave
Sent to hell, to suffer endless grief

Did you close forever heavens's door?
We're not wanted, welcome nevermore?
Pain and rage against the bleeding sky
Can you hear us father, hear us cry?

Still we hope
We will return one day
We will find a way?
Forgive the stained
All we want is
Paradise regained!

What has happened, wasn't I the one?
Prince of light - an angel full of sun?
Now it's dark, my face cold and numb
Holy father, what have I become?

Did you close forever heaven's door?
We're not wanted, welcome nevermore?
Pain and rage against the bleeding sky
Can you hear us, father, hear us cry?

Still we hope
We will return one day!
We will find a way?
Forgive the stained
All we want is
Paradise regained!

All is not lost.
