

The Prayers Of The Mute

In Strict Confidence

Shout out loud
That deafs may listen
Listen to your prayers
Make sure no word is missing
Don't let light
Shine on me
Lead into the night
A mysterious world outside

The prayers of the mute
Can be heard by everyone
Who closes his eyes
And read between the lines
The prayers of the mute
Are only filled with lies
I see your smile
And your heart how it cries

Aimless warriors
With weapons sent from heaven
To tilt at windmills
No sins will be forgiven
Aimless warriors
With weapons filled with lies
Again and again I see your heart
How it cries

Can't you feel the rain that's coming
Washing away dust in your eyes
Can't you see that pain is running
Faster than your tear can dry

The prayers of the mute
Who closes his eyes
And read between the lines
The prayers of the mute
Are only filled with lies
I see your smile
And your heart how it cries
