

This Is All

In Strict Confidence

All the dreams I once had are broken
All my hopes have died away
Why are we doomed to suffer
On this march towards decay?

All the glories in the world are waiting
There is life and there is love
We are not meant to suffer
There is mercy from above mercy from above

All the dreams I once had are broken
all horizons fade away
Why are we doomed to suffer
On this march towards decay?

All the glories in the world are waiting
There is life and there is love
Feel the wind of liberation
There is shelter from above shelter from above

This is all you can expect from life
There is more, so much more
Kiss the shotgun and caress the knife
There's an angel in a whore

This is all you'll ever get from life
There is more, so much more
Kiss the shotgun and caress the knife
Take your chances and explore
