

Awaken The Dawn

In The Midst Of Lions

"I am in the midst of lions; I lie among ravenous beasts Men whose teeth are spears and arrows, whose tongues are sharp swords.

Be exalted, O God, above the heavens; let your glory be over al l the earth.

They spread a net for my feet I was bowed down in distress.
They dug a pit in my path but they have fallen into it themselv es.

My heart is steadfast, O God, my heart is steadfast; I will sin g and make music.

Awake, my soul! Awake, harp and lyre!

I will awaken the dawn. "