

Creation of an ancient shape

In The Woods...

See this form of darkness and search its endless feast Floating through this storm immortal histories

Cold and destructive Wisdom which hailed from the north crushing all good
With a touch of bare skin
Spread total fear through them hordes

As chaos strikes and weakness dies

Armed in iron weapons
Die to reach the sky
Brave men into battle
Allfather, greet me in your hall

A creation
All it will rise again
Warriors strive for vengeance
Ancient shapes of creation
