

Heart Of The Ages

In The Woods...

The surrounding walls for yet unknown qualities.
Have you ever been gifted to watch upon them?
Or the elements, so oppressive, but still not known.
Was there ever this moment they cared to let you inside?

Mother Natures son or just a savage diving into the wilderness, we do adore so much?
There were times of hesitation and of union...
They did enjoy the combination when one hand was given ingratitude or even?

Will the era come...? That of, when man shall become aware of Her ways and his instants.
Literature may hold the final words for a glorious reunion, but do gather forces and...
strive for knowledge wide.
Await my gentle coming "journey", for...

...Once, when all those in the circle as four greet a welcome through the Entrance, I will be this one who gathers up with them,
and then to become their fifth and last comrade of spirituality.

Forever, and into the oblivion of infinity.
