

The Blood Legion

In This Moment

Tonight, it feels like a good time to die
Tonight, it feels like a good time to rise
Tonight, we live

Tonight, it feels like a good time to fly
Tonight, it feels like the Gods are alive
Tonight, we turn, we'll we believe all the

I will not bow down, I will rise through the sun
I'm transcending, I am claiming my throne
We are immortal, we rise through the wreck
We are eternal, you are my blood legion, my faith

I will not bow down, I'll rise through the sun
I'm transcending, I am claiming my throne
We are immortal, we'll rise through the wreck
We are eternal, you are my blood legion, my faith.

We are immortal... we will rise above the wreck
We are eternal... you are my blood legion, my faith.
