

I Hear Your Name

Incognito

It's been a year today
Baby, since you came into my life
Feels just like yesterday
That we both stood beneath the open sky

Playing like children in the rain
As though we had known our destiny
Nothin' would ever be the same
I guess I knew you were the one for me

I hear your name (I hear your name)
Suddenly the world is standin' still
I hear your name (I hear your name)
And I start dreamin' of makin' love
I hear your name (I hear your name)
Bringin' on a rush of ecstasy
I hear your name
And I feel like makin' love to you

We've come such a long way
A travellers' road, no lookin' back
Here's where I want to stay
Safe in your arms feelin' body & soul

When you're not here I long to feel
The lovin' warmth of your embrace
Mssin' you madly night and day
Longin' to see you face to face

There is no use in tryin' to hide
The way that I feel
Life is so clear with you on my mind
I know for sure I'm not mislead
And baby, I love everything that you do
For me

Feel like makin' makin' love
I feel like makin' love

`Cos I feel like makin' makin' love
I feel like makin' love
