

Line In The Sand

Incognito

Let's draw a line in the sand
Now that we both understand
Let's draw a line in the sand
We can't go on this way
Hurting each other everyday
Now I just wanna cry
When I think of the past
And the way it used to be
Now you question my love
And you talk out loud
Dragging the night into my day
I want to give you so much more,
But I don't know just where I stand anymore
Let's draw a line in the sand
Now that we both understand
Let's draw a line in the sand
We can't go on this way
Hurting each other everyday
You took me so high
And I showed you my heart
I thought we had it all
I used to believe
Everything that you said
Then you turned my love away
I've heard these promises before
And I don't want to play this game anymore
Let's draw a line in the sand
Now that we both understand
Let's draw a line in the sand
We can't go on this way
Hurting each other everyday
Gone is the love
Where is the love?
It's time for changes
Let's draw a line in the sand
Now that we both understand
Let's draw a line in the sand
We can't go on this way
Hurting each other everyday
