

Put A Little Lovin' In Your Heart

Incognito

All is fine in the warm sunshine
But here we are together and it's London in December
Oh baby
Close to you with a love so true
No I can't remember a feeling so good no I never I'm so glad that I have you in my life, it's the real thing
Nothing compares to someone who cares
No matter what the seasons may bring
Put a little lovin' in your heart
Keeping together what is real
Put a little lovin' in your heart
Baby don't stop the way that you make me feel
Wake me up if I close my eyes
Need your touch to remind me, we're the stars of the story
Believe me
This love you'll find is one of a kind
I knew then when I told you that I'd make you mine when I met y ou
You're all I ever wanted
You're all I need
I know that this is how Things should be
