

Silence of My Mind

Incognito

I wake up and I'm feeling low with a feeling that won't let me go and I'm building walls inside me to keep the world from coming in.
I see no sense in taking anymore
I've been here more than all once before
I know the headline of the story
Before I read the morning news
It's not too late to recognize that you're taking the best of me
I've waited long to see you change
But here we are and we're still the same
When it gets too crazy and I can't be found
I may be hiding in the silence of my mind
If you're looking for me but I can't be found
I may be hiding in the silence of my mind
Of my mind
It comes without a guarantee
Can't believe in everything you see
All the loving and affection can be slowly worn away
I see the future coming into view
I'm in the shadows and I'm feeling blue Got to make the right the right decision before there's nothing left to lose
It's not too late to recognize that you're taking the best of me
I've waited long to see it change
But here we are and we're still the same
When it gets too crazy and I can't be found (so crazy woooo)
I may be hiding in the silence of my mind (hiding in the silence)
If you're looking for me but I can't be found
I may be hiding in the silence of my mind (in the in the silence)
Of my mind
Oh yea yea
When it gets to crazy and I can't be found
I may be hiding in the silence of my mind
If you're looking for but I can't be found I may be hiding in the silence of my mind.
In the silence
Mmmmmmm
In the silence of my mind
