

Lies

Indecision

You're always pointing fingers
You're too blind to be
Too proud to blame yourself and too afraid to see
You're always pointing fingers
They should be pointed inward
You're the one at fault
You're too blind to see the truth
No more of your - no more lies
Waste my - time with
Your lies - your lies
Excuses are what failures are made of
But I'm no failure
I point the finger inward
I'm not looking for a scapegoat
I am...I am...I am.. the truth!
