

The Wounded

Index Case

We live in the weak and the wounded
Live in the weak and the wounded
Live in the weak and the wounded

I warned you, I warned you all
This would happen, to you all

I warned you
I warned you, I warned you all
This would happen, to you all

Distance, clearer, assistance
From mirrors they keep
Pulling our thoughts aside
How we arrived behind
Slideshows of our lives
Starring at the signs
Waiting till we find
That one reason

I warned you, I warned you all
This would happen, to you all

One day you will see your lives again
You will be alive again
While your blaming
The eyeless are painting
Pictures of wounded
Pictures of the weak

I warned you, I warned you all
This would happen, to you all
