

Don't Give That Girl a Gun

Indigo Girls

She's got a case against me a jury of my peers
And the rage of the righteous screaming in her ears
I'm not dignified anymore, can't say I didn't call
I say I love you, she don't hear me anymore

Don't give that girl a gun
I said now don't give that girl a gun
She's already won
She's already won

I made a bad connection she says I went astray
I jumped ship, abandoned my post, I didn't think I'd lost my way
But how the mighty fall I saw her crack a smile
I don't got a chance for redemption she don't believe in the miracle mile

So take the first shot baby it'll be real clean
I'm your girl strong and mean
The second shot baby it'll be real cool
I'm your fool

Don't give that girl a gun
I said now don't give that girl a gun
She's already won
She's already won

I said hold me closer cause something's happening
I just can't get it together
She says, "I doubt you ever will, ever will again"

I said don't give that girl a gun
I said now don't give that girl a gun (give that girl a gun)
She's already won
She's already won

Yeah...(give that girl a gun)
Yeah...(give that girl a gun)

The first shot baby it'll be real clean
I'm your girl strong and mean
The second shot baby it'll be real cool
I'm your fool I'm your fool I'm your Fool

Don't give that girl a gun
