

Breathless

InDirections

You try to take me down but I will never be on your level
You try to take me down but I will always rise to the surface
So stay away
I won't crawl back to you
Why must you watch me crawl
All you wanna do is weigh me down like an anchor
But you'll never send me to the depths
Why must I crawl time after time
All you wanna do is bring me down
I can never lose
I won't finish last
Even if all this time has passed
Me and you will fight to the end
I can't stand anything you say
Why are you so hollow in the inside
You make me feel so paralyzed
Maybe it's because you have this rope around my neck
I'll never give you the chance to have what beats in my chest
Why must you watch me crawl?
All you wanna do is weigh me down like an anchor
But you'll never send me to the depths
Why must I crawl time after time?
All you wanna do is bring me down
Why must you watch me crawl?
All you wanna do is weigh me down like an anchor
But you'll never send me to the depths
Why must I crawl time after time?
All you wanna do is bring me down
Let's see what you're made of
I'll cut you up and feast on the lies that you're ashamed of
Let's see what you're made of
I'll cut you up and feast on the lies that you're ashamed of
