

Pinned Down And Fisted

Infant Annihilator

So it begins. The procession of the rituals will bring judgment upon man. As the congregation of the damned you will now renounce the blood of the lamb. Alter boys march single file down the aisle where they kneel before the crucifix. Their orders are to unrobe then bow before the cross. You shall witness the shame of human flesh as we reach in to the bowels of your innocent children. The perverted members of the church gather closer to see the event. The priests now proceed to fist the boys. Watch as my minions insert their fists. Soon they will join the dead then pave the road with their bodies. Their blood will pave the way for the future of our church. These roads unite my dominion. As their ass is gauged, the blade of impurity is sharpened for the end of the ceremony. Once my priests are done the robes, once white, now bear the blood of the boys who once wore them.
