

The Palpable Leprosy Of Pollution

Infant Annihilator

I will rewrite history. They say the pen is mightier than the sword; and with a pen I'll restructure the formation of religion to re-wire their minds to a subservient system. With the scriptures revise d to hypnotize I will unite the forsaken after civilization falls to its knees and begs for my mercy. I extend my bloody hands and I fee d them promises of hope and change. With a fake smile I lie to their f aces.
This marks the new age of despair and desperation. I will make them worship me as the God I am. This world is mine for the taking.
Within
desperation the shattered pieces unite under me - their new God and master. My locusts feed from the inside out; I now go by 'Thy Devourer'. Within my chaos lies their obedience. Chaos turns to order.
A conquered world awaits their conquered God. He is losing thei r prayers as their children slowly die away. Mutilated; perforate d. The decimation of creation is the only way to destroy their creator
: I
will destroy their creator.
